

Strengthening Civil Society and Media Systems Activity (Sawt) In Jordan

Our Implementing Partners & Partner Approach

Internews Network has joined forces with Mercy Corps and the International Center for Not-For-Profit Law (ICNL) to form the Sawt Team and leverage each organization's mutually reinforcing and unique strengths.

Internews has a proven history of providing deep expertise in media, technology, and innovative digital civic engagement and building sustainable and accountable local institutions.

Mercy Corps brings global expertise in inclusive civil society development, with a deep understanding of Jordanian civil society.

ICNL's unique expertise on the legal framework governing civic space contributes to advancing Sawt's advocacy efforts for an enabling environment for CSOs by providing technical assistance to CSOs, government officials, and other stakeholders to support laws, regulations, and practices that protect and promote civic freedoms.
